Dear parents and carers,

I have been made aware by Durham Police that we have had a break in today (Sunday) in our school. The police have shared the information they have regarding this incident with myself and our caretaker and we are on site to support. CSI are taking forensic evidence from the scene as items have been stolen along with damage to the property.

We have been advised that school can open tomorrow as usual once the evidence has been taken and the scene has been cleared.

We are a school who works with, and supports our local community and therefore we will work closely with the police to ensure this matter is quickly and effectively resolved.

I know you will want to share any information you have regarding this so you can contact one of the investigating officers in Durham Police directly on:

Thank you for your support,
